

A Priceless Christmas Present

On 13 December 2018, the Department of Religion gave a talk entitled, “A priceless Christmas present” to all Catholic secondary students. Students learnt that money can’t buy invaluable things such as morals, integrity, trust and love. If we possess these qualities we can offer priceless Christmas presents to our loved ones. During the talk we watched a short film about kindness which is one of the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. Students were encouraged to perform one small act of kindness in their daily lives and consider how “a small act of kindness goes a long way”. Brother Bosco then shared his practical suggestions on how to be better Catholics and better students by being more aware of our inner and personal foundation and virtue. These are the best presents we can give to Jesus, ourselves and others.
